Pager: (360) 905-9937

ENTRIES:

Stall fees: $5 must accompany each animal entered. Entry form and fees are due in the Fair Office or postmarked by midnight Monday, July 25, 2005. Entries of 4-H and FFA exhibitors must bear the name of the club or chapter and the leader.

Hay: Grass hay provided by the Fair.

SPECIFIC RULES:

1. Exhibitors should read the General Rules document that also contains the General Animal Health Requirements, available on the Fair's website.
2. Beef cattle must be in stalls by 8 a.m., Friday, August 5, 2005, except animals coming from another fair, which must be left to the discretion of the superintendent.
3. No early releases will be allowed unless approved by Superintendent in writing prior to the Fair. Contact the Superintendent for further information.
4. Number of animals an exhibitor may stall will be limited by available space.
5. Animals offered in breed classes must be registered in the recognized breed association of the class.
6. To be eligible to enter a group lot, an animal must also be shown as an individual.
7. Group lots may be composed of animals kept on the same farm yet owned by different members of the family unit. Please list each group lots on an entry form.
8. All breeds wanting breed promotion space in the beef building must have their requests in by Monday, June 20, 2005. Regular stall fees must be paid. Stall space used for other than exhibit of animals shall be up to the discretion of the superintendent.
9. Herdsmanship awards will be given, based on observance of exhibits throughout the Fair for cleanliness and attractiveness of animals and stalls, as well as courteousness and neatness of attendant.

10. Exhibitors finding mistakes in premiums paid must report them to the Fair Office within 30 days, or no adjustment can be made.
