ENTRY INFORMATION:
We endeavor to have space available for all exhibits entered by the deadline date, however, barn and exhibit space is limited. In the event more entries are received than space allows for, they will be accepted by Superintendents in the following priority: first entries from Clark County will be given preference, and then space will be given to those who have exhibited the past three years. If there is still sufficient space, entries will be accepted in the order received.

Send all entry forms and fees to Fairgrounds Site Management Group (FSMG), 17402 NE Delfel Rd., Ridgefield, WA 98642. Entries for each breed must be in the Clark County Event Center at the Fairgrounds Office by Saturday, July 15, 2017, and accompanied by a non-refundable entry fee of $10 per animal. Check should be made out to FSMG. Credit Card payment accepted at the fairgrounds office.

SPECIFIC RULES: Please also see the General Rules of the Fair.

1. Exhibitors must read the General Rules document that also contains the General Animal Health Requirements, available on the Fair's website.

2. All animals entered for exhibition shall be registered in a recognized dairy breed association and the exhibitor shall present registration certificates to the corresponding breed superintendent on the day animals arrive at the Fair.

3. The breed superintendent shall check all certificates for age, correct entry in class, identification of animal, and ownership, which will be determined by the name appearing on the registration certificate or transfer, no pending registrations will be accepted. Entries must be filled out completely.

4. Ayrshire, Brown Swiss, Guernsey, Milking Shorthorn and Jersey entries must be in place Friday, August 4, by 8 am. Holsteins must be in place Wednesday, August 9, by 9 am. If animals are coming from another fair and cannot meet the above times, arrangements must be made with the breed superintendent.

5. Animals which are in any of the group classes must be shown in individual classes.

6. An exhibitor may enter more than two animals in each lot, but will only be paid for the two highest placing animals in each lot.

7. Number of animals an exhibitor may stall will be limited by available space.

8. All breeds wanting milk and breed promotion space in the livestock exhibit building must have the requests in by Saturday, July 1. Submit requests to Premium & Awards Supervisor, Sue Schurman. A space fee must be paid. Queen Cow space shall be free, selected by milk production. Preference will be given to in county entries first, followed by exhibits within the state.

9. Calves must be at least four months old to be entered in calf classes.

10. All cattle are required to have an ownership inspection (brand) from the state of origin prior to entering the fair.

11. Dress code: Clean white or black trousers are required. Matching farm shirts (polo style) or white button down shirts are allowed. No tank tops, tee shirts allowed.
