OFFICIAL ADGA SHOW: THEIR RULES SHALL GOVERN

THE JUNIOR & SENIOR SHOWS ARE SEPARATELY SANCTIONED

ENTRIES:

Entry fee is $1 per animal. Request entry forms from Fair Office. Return completed entry forms to the Clark County Fair Office by July 15, 2005. Entries must have registration or recordation papers checked by the Show Secretary before start of shows. Entries must be brought into the barns between 5 and 8 a.m. Wednesday, August 10, 2005.

SPECIFIC RULES: Also please see the General Rules document available on the Fair's website.

1. The first half of the Open Class Show will begin at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, August 11, 2005, consisting of the following breeds, shown in this order: Nubian, AOP & Recorded Grade.

2. The second half of the Open Class Show will begin at 9:30 a.m., Friday, August 12, 2005, consisting of the following breeds shown in this order: LaMancha, Alpine & Saanen.

3. All open class animals eligible for production awards must have DHIR Individual Lifetime Records or AR* milker designation on registration papers or proof qualifying in a one-day milking competition.

4. All entries must be shown unless excused by the Barn Superintendent prior to class.

5. Entries shown in group classes must have been shown in their individual classes. Limit of two entries per exhibitor for each group class. No late group entries. One exhibitor is limited to two premiums per lot (A-P).
6. Milking and clipping will be done in designated areas or tack.
7. Pen space to be assigned by superintendent.
8. All animals entered must be either naturally polled, dehorned or disbudded. Large scurs will be discriminated against.
9. No dumping of milk in dry wells is permitted. Offenders will forfeit premiums.
10. Individual classes over 16 may be split.
11. Exhibitor is defined as all animals registered and owned under the same ADGA number.
