GUIDELINES FOR DRAFT HORSE INVITEES:

1. Communication, orally or by conduct, which is obscene or lewd, is prohibited.
2. NO DOGS ALLOWED under any circumstances.

3. Anything that is put up (nails, hooks, wire, staples, etc.) in or on the stalls must be taken down or removed before you leave. If you can't take it down or pull it out don't put it in.
4. Anything that you take down (boards, etc.) must be put back exactly where you found it before you leave. If you can't put it back don't take it down.
5. The golf carts are for transporting draft horse personnel only, do not transport the general public.
6. Do not converse with any media (TV, radio or newspaper) about any incident that may occur, unless you have prior permission from the Fair Management or Draft Horse Superintendent.
7. Keep aisles clear of brooms, forks, tack, HOSES and any other tripping hazards.
8. Appropriate attire must be worn at all times. This includes substantial footwear – closed toed shoes only – when working with Draft Horses. (Absolutely no flip-flops!).
9. The general public is not to be in the stall or have any contact with the horses for any reason at any time, unless their name is on the helper list.
10. If you are caught tampering with the wire on the fronts of the stall for any reason, you are responsible for the cost of repairs ($250).
11. All Draft Horse participants should be setting an example for other departments to follow.
