ENTRY INFO:

Entries shall be filed with the superintendent by July 1, 2005. Pen fee: $1.50 per animal.

Sheep must be in place by Friday, August 5, at 8 a.m., and will be released Tuesday, August 9, at 7 p.m. One entry per exhibitor in group classes.

VERY IMPORTANT!

Some sheep will be penned in Livestock South.

SPECIFIC RULES:

1. Please also see the General Rules document available on the Fair's website.
2. All animals must be purebred, registered and shall be the property of the owner.
3. Sheep must show in the breed they are registered in except for Natural Colored Sheep. They can be registered in any breed and show as Fine, Medium, or Coarse wool. Sheep registered in more than one association can show in only one breed. No wether sires or dams will be accepted.
4. All entries must have registration tags in their ears, for breeds requiring tags.
5. Lambs must have lamb's teeth to be eligible for lamb classes.
6. All animals shown in groups must have been entered and shown as individuals.

7. All persons showing animals in the ring must be neat and clean in appearance.
8. Exhibitors are required to keep pens and tack area neat and clean. Those exhibitors who do not maintain good herdsmanship may be banned from exhibiting their animals from next year's Fair.

Clark County Fair furnishes straw for bedding.

9. No exhibitor can have more than two premiums in any one lot.
10. Natural Colored Sheep will be judged 60% on the wool. They must be registered in a recognized breed association.
11. The following birth dates will apply for Corriedale, Dorset, Columbia, Polypay, Rambouillet, Targhee, Shropshire, Suffolk, Hampshire and St. Croix.
Senior Lamb: Sept. 1 - Dec. 31, 2004.

CLASS H34: SHEEP HERDSMANSHIP

LOT A: No entries necessary. All exhibitors of open class sheep must participate in Herdsmanship.
Purpose of Herdsmanship is to present an attractive and clean barn and to provide educational information about sheep and wool. Only exhibitors with two or more pens will receive points and be eligible for cash awards. Each exhibitor must identify their pen or group of pens by a sign indicating the owner and the breed of sheep on display. Herdsmanship will be judged one or more times each day during the hours the Fair is open to the public.

Daily scores will be posted in the sheep barn by 8 p.m. The accumulative scores will be posted on the final day by 2 p.m.

Points will be awarded as follows: cleanliness of pens and aisle, tack, cleanliness and condition of sheep-20 points; decorations, farm sign, educational exhibit-10 points; exhibitor appearance, attitude, and availability to the public-10 points.

Judging will be the responsibility of the Southwest Washington Sheep Breeders Association who do not have sheep on exhibit at the Fair.

Lot No:

1. Single market lamb
2. Single lamb carcass

Contest open to all sheep exhibitors.

Entry limit: two lambs per exhibitor.

Lambs may be either sex of any breed or cross breed.

No ram or cryptochid lambs accepted.

Any lamb found to be a yearling will be disqualified.

Lambs must be shorn: no more than 1/2 in. of wool.

Each animal must enter in and compete in both classes.

Live animals will be weighed, eartagged and judged on Friday, August 5, starting at approximately 9 a.m.

Lambs will be shipped to a packing house for slaughter.

Carcasses will be judged on the rail. The results will be compiled and posted in the Sheep Barn as soon as possible thereafter. The "Clark County Lamb of Merit" program will be the criteria used in evaluating carcasses. Copies available from the Sheep Superintendent.

The owner is responsible for the killing cost. The ownership of the carcasses remains with the exhibitor. Disposition of the carcass after it is judged is the responsibility of the exhibitor.
