

4-H GENERAL DIVISIONS

4-H STILL EXHIBITS & ACTIVITY AREA (EXHIBITION HALL A) Superintendent Coordinator Teri Le Sharp 360-608-2581

Each 4-H member showing in this department is responsible for reading and complying with the General Rules for the Clark County Fair, the 4-H rules and regulations (the Clark County Fair General Rules and the 4-H General Rules documents are available on the Clark County Fair's website www.clarkcofair.com), and the special rules and regulations of this department

4-H STEWARDS

Stewardship is for all 4-H members entering exhibits in Family & Consumer Sciences, Engineering & Technology, Expressive Arts, Environmental Stewardship, Social Sciences, Interdisciplinary and Plant Sciences projects or 4-H Activities-Kitchen, Public Presentation or 4-H in Action in the 4-H Exhibit Area in Exhibition Hall A. A 4-H Steward will help public learn about 4-H, to direct and answer questions for the various exhibits on display and to maintain a clean organize appearance of the 4-H area.

August 4-13, 2017
10 am to 8 pm

Stewardship is mandatory for all Junior, Intermediate and Senior 4-H members exhibiting in the 4-H Still Exhibit Area in Exhibition Hall A which consist of one hour of stewardship duty once during Clark County Fair (August 4-13) between 10 am – 8 pm during a Clark County Fair day. Members may choose one hour of 4-H In Action (Class B) instead of regular stewardship.

Sign ups for Stewardship time will be Tuesday, August 1 in the 4-H Area in Exhibition Hall A from 10 am to 8 pm. Failure to do stewardship means that member premiums can be withheld. Stewardship will consist of greeting public, answering questions, giving directions and maintaining appearance of the 4-H area.

4-H Educational Displays/Posters Division 030

	Blue	Red	White
CLASS 1 Posters (14" x 22")	10	8	6
CLASS 2 Posters (22" x 28")	12	10	8
CLASS 3 Table Displays - Tri-folds (24" x 36" or larger) and mobiles	20	15	11
CLASS 4 Large Displays	24	18	12

Large Displays please contact superintendent prior to entry date.

PLEASE NOTE: If your project area or club requires that a poster be turned in and you are involved in more than one project, ONLY ONE WILL BE ACCEPTED FOR JUDGING IN THIS DIVISION.

An educational display stimulates thought, teaches facts, or shows a process. It may result in action on the reader's part. The educational display can take the form of a poster, a tabletop display, a mobile or large display. Displays have less than 60 seconds to get their message across. Display may show any topic of an educational nature. The display may include sound, motion, etc.

PLANNING IS IMPORTANT!

PLEASE INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING ITEMS ON THE BACK OF YOUR POSTER:

- 4-H member's name
- 4-H project area (example dogs, dairy, rabbit)
- 4-H Level – Primary – Junior – Intermediate - Senior

IDEAS AND HELPFUL HINTS FOR YOUR POSTER:

- Check your spelling
- Have a title for your project
- Have a 1-2 inch border
- Be able to read text from 10 feet away (example ½" size letters)

This not to be confused with the educational material and posters used in herdsmanship in the animal barns. Those are a group, club or individual effort. An Educational Display is only an individual effort.

Superintendents can pick up their posters at the 4-H Fair office in Exhibition Hall A (4-H Still Exhibit Area) August 4-13. Member Posters can be picked up in 4-H project areas after Clark County Fair. Posters will not be brought back to the 4-H Program office.

Exhibits are judged against a standard as defined on the scorecard C0679 (7/02). They are not judged in competition with one another.

Wednesday	August 9	10 am-2 pm
Thursday	August 10	10 am-2 pm
Friday	August 11	10 am-2 pm
Saturday	August 12	1 pm-6 pm

Open to 4-H Juniors, Intermediates, and Seniors

CLASS A: 30 minutes - 12 points

CLASS B: 60 minutes - 25 points

- Pre-registration forms will be available at the WSU/Clark County Extension Office the first business day of May or <http://extension.wsu.edu/clark/4hyouthfamilies/clarkcountyfair/> and due in the WSU/Clark County Extension Office (1919 NE 78 Street, Vancouver, WA) by the last business day of June.
- Members may also sign up on August 1 or anytime during Fair if space is availability – 4-H Still Exhibit Entry Day at the 4-H Fair Office located in the 4-H General Area in Exhibit Hall A of the Event Center.
- 4-H in Action can be done for 1 hour (Class B) in place of a member's 1 hour Stewardship requirement when entering exhibits in the Still Exhibit areas.
- This is a non-judged activity that takes place on the 4-H stage in the 4-H general exhibit area or pre-arranged location (such as an animal barn) with the 4-H in Action Superintendent prior to Fair. This activity is not as formal as a demonstration; however, the presentation should be planned and practiced. Individuals, teams, and groups are encouraged to share an activity with the public. Information should be presented and questions answered.
- Examples of activities that would work well in this type of presentation are: spinning wool, using a serger to construct garment, show how to use grooming equipment, how and why to recycle, construction of craft items, quilting, knitting, crocheting or sewing, showing how cameras work, showing how to build something, demonstrating creating bonsai.
- You are responsible for providing all supplies and equipment necessary to complete your presentation.
- You may be a Cloverbud, Junior, Intermediate or Senior to participate in this activity, and you may sign up to do this at State Fair - even Juniors, but no Cloverbuds.
- To sign up for the 4-H State Fair Activity contact Nancy Peck (360) 687-2312 or during Clark County Fair once qualified (Blue Ribbon). Nancy can be found at the 4-H Kitchen area in Exhibit Hall A or Sunday, August 13 from 10 -11 pm or Monday, August 14 from 9 am to Noon in the 4-H Kitchen area in Exhibit Hall A.

Public Presentations Division 050

Points: Blue 15, Red 12, White 10

Cloverbuds – Participation Ribbons

CLASS:

- A. Juniors: 3, 4, 5 grade completed
- B. Intermediates: 6, 7, 8 grade completed
- C. Seniors: 9th grade and over

1. The purpose of a public presentation is to help young people develop poise and confidence, gain knowledge and skill, and perform a service by teaching others. Juniors are welcome; members NEED NOT have taken part in 4-H Program Day Presentations or County Public Presentation Day days to take part in this activity.
2. Premiums will be based on presentation at the Clark County Fair.
3. Contestants report with all necessary materials at time scheduled.
4. Cloverbuds members will receive participation ribbons. The Cloverbud department exhibits and activities are not judged. This philosophy is consistent with current research that competition is not meaningful and may detract from learning experiences for children in this age group. Members will be given encouraging comments from evaluators.
5. 4-H Educational materials are located at:
<https://pubs.wsu.edu/ListItems.aspx?Keyword=Public%20Presentations>
Publication EM4787E “How To Do A 4-H Public Presentation – member manual.”

Commodity Presentations Division 060

Exhibition Only - Ribbons Only

The 4-H member will:

- Choose one of the commodities listed by State 4-H for the current 4-H year.
- Present a public presentation utilizing the commodity product to make a finished product (food item, decorative item, craft, etc.)
- Promote the use of the commodity throughout the presentation

- Research the nutritional data for the commodity and present the information as a part of the presentation

One of the following must also be included as a part of the presentation:

- Research the historical aspects of the commodity and present this data as part of the presentation
- Research the cultural aspect of the commodity and present this data as part of the presentation
- Research the economic impact of the selected commodity upon the State of Washington and present the data as a part of the presentation

Individual presentations only are allowed. Easels, tables, power cords and microphones will be provided. All participants will use electronic sound equipment.

Participants are responsible to bring all equipment and supplies necessary to complete their presentation. Use of the fair kitchens is not possible.

The recipe (ingredient list and instructions) used in the presentation must be turned in to the superintendent.

It is recommended that participants serve the judge a sample of the item prepared.

The time limit for each presentation is 20-30 minutes. The time includes setting up, giving the presentation, answering questions, judge's comments, and clean up.

The top Intermediates and Seniors in each commodity are eligible to compete at the 4-H State Fair.

Categories for Fair 2017 are:

To sign up for the 4-H State Fair Activity contact Nancy Peck (360) 687-2312 or during Clark County Fair once member has qualified (Blue Ribbon) at the 4-H Kitchen area in Exhibit Hall A or Sunday, August 13 from 10 -11 pm or Monday, August 14 from 9 am to Noon in the 4-H Kitchen area in Exhibit Hall A.
