2019 Parent Contract

Riverview Community Bank Clark County Fair Court

As a parent or guardian of a winning court member, I agree to the following:

- Be supportive of all court members at all times. Treat each court member as your own daughter for the overall benefit of the whole court.
- Communicate first with your daughter then to the court advisor on all topics.
- No alcohol is to be brought onto the Fairgrounds and consumption of alcohol sold on the Fairgrounds is not allowed.
- Proper language must always be used, not only at court events, but also during transportation to and from court events.
- Always travel safely following all laws pertaining to driving.
- Be respectful of other parents, Fair Board members, and advisors.
- No driving the golf cart during the Fair without permission by advisor or Fair Board member.
- Any press releases or other documents created for use by the court must have advisor's permission before publication.
- Reimbursements will NOT be granted unless the parent has requested permission before the purchase.
- Any request to purchase items for the court must be agreed upon by ALL court parents before the purchase is made.
- Parents are responsible for all visitors' behavior. This includes escorts, parents, friends, family members, etc....
- Do not criticize another court member. Except where safety is concerned, take the issue to the advisor if you notice something that needs attention (hair, makeup, wardrobe issue, etc...)
- Help your daughter remain on time and keep with the court schedule.
- Be involved. One parent from each court member is required at every event.
- Help keep outfits and equipment clean and in working order and in a secured location to prevent theft.
- Only court members are allowed to speak to the media. If approached, please refrain from any comments other than to offer the location of the court.
- Fair week can be a difficult and busy time for the court and family. Focus on keeping the week a positive time.

Parent participation is required the week of fair.

- Help enforce all fair rules. Fair rules are set to maintain a safe and fun time for everyone.
- Most importantly, enjoy this year with your daughter. This is a special time for all of the royal family.

In addition to the above, I further agree to all terms outlined in the Contestant Application, Tryout Rules/Regulations, and Fair Court Contract. I agree to willingly support my daughter throughout her reign, including transportation to and from events, attendance at events, and any financial assistance which may be necessary.
