

CLARK COUNTY FAIR EQUESTRIAN COURT HISTORY

The late William V "Bill" Jones started the Clark County Fair Equestrian Court in 1986. Bill was a member of the Clark County Fair Board for many years. He felt the young ladies of Clark County would be valuable ambassadors to promote the Fair year-round. Bill contributed his enthusiastic expertise to achieve the vision of the Clark County Fair Equestrian Court. The Court rode in many county parades and festivals.

In 1993, the Court achieved another ambition of Bill's vision. He had always wanted to see the Court ride in the Portland Grand Floral Parade. This milestone was achieved by a can-do Court, seamstress, and the generous donations of county-wide sponsors. Each year the Court looks forward to this annual tradition.

Bill's goal was to give the young women of Clark County the opportunity to travel and promote a fantastic Fair. For 31 years now, the Clark County Fair Equestrian Court has embodied the true vision of one terrific citizen of Clark County.
