DIVISION 100: SHEEP HERDSMANSHIP:

CLASS A: No entry form necessary. All exhibitors of open class sheep must participate in Herdsmanship. Purpose of Herdsmanship is to present an attractive and clean barn and to provide educational information about sheep and wool. Only exhibitors with two or more pens will receive points and be eligible for cash awards. Each exhibitor must identify their pen or group of pens by a sign indicating the owner and the breed of sheep on display. No Herdsmanship on Tuesday. Herdsmanship will be judged one or more times each day during the hours the Fair is open to the public.

Daily scores will be posted in the sheep barn by 8 p.m. The accumulative scores will be posted on the final day by 2 p.m.

Points will be awarded as follows: cleanliness of pens and aisle, tack, cleanliness, and condition of sheep-20 points; decorations, farm sign, educational exhibit-10 points; exhibitor appearance, attitude, and availability to the public-10 points.

Judging will be the responsibility of the Southwest Washington Sheep Breeders Association who do not have sheep on exhibit at the Fair.
